Re: Chapter 7 Case
Case No. 07-53251

Dear Mr. Whittington:

As of this date, February 22, 2008, we (Eric J. Vetter and Robinette R. Vetter), no longer wish for you to represent us in the matter of our Chapter 7 Bankruptcy case (case no. 07-53251). Your services are being terminated for the following reasons:

- 1) Mr. Whittington, you appeared agitated and uncomfortable with us, openly in the presence of other clients and attorneys before our hearing, in the Atrium at the Orangerie Mall (November 26, 2007). You would not sit with us, and chose to sit with your back to us almost entirely. You also chose to be loud when you counseled us, prior to the hearing, which was both embarrassing and unnecessary--- causing us to have a poor attorney-client relationship and experience.
- 2) You failed to fully disclose important information, regarding a court order which was sought, independent of our knowledge or consent, to redirect/ intercept our 2007 Federal Tax Return.

Lastly,

- 3) Our situation and direction concerning our homeownership, and debt management have completely changed since we began this process in October.

Please contact us at (330) 819-1893 if you have any questions or concerns at this point.

Sincerely,

Eric J. Vetter &
Robinette R. Vetter
